RESPONSIVE READING	#579, “The Limits of Tyrants” ~Frederick Douglas	Rev. Daniel
Those who profess to favor freedom, and yet deprecate agitation, are people who want crops without plowing up the ground. They want rain without thunder and lightning; they want the ocean without the awful roar of its waters. This struggle may be a moral one; or it may be both moral and physical; but it must be a struggle. Power concedes nothing without a demand; it never did and it never will. Find out what people will submit to, and you have found out the exact amount of injustice which will be imposed upon them. The limits of tyrants are prescribed by the endurance of those whom they oppress.

Lyrics

##100, Peace Like a River

I've got peace like a river, I've got peace like a river

I've got peace like a river in my soul

I've got peace like a river, I've got peace like a river

I've got peace like a river in my soul

I've got joy like a fountain...

I've got love like an ocean...

I've got pain like an arrow...

#155 Circle 'Round for Freedom

Circle 'round for freedom, circle 'round for peace,

For all of us imprisoned, circle for release.

Circle for the planet, circle for each soul,

For the children of our children, keep the circle whole

#100, Peace Like a River

I've got peace like a river, I've got peace like a river

I've got peace like a river in my soul

I've got peace like a river, I've got peace like a river

I've got peace like a river in my soul

I've got tears like the raindrops...

I've got strength like a mountain...

I've got peace like a river...
