- Runaway Inequality: Activists Workshop, Sat Sep 14, 9:00am – 1:00pm, WPCLB (Westchester-Putnam Central Labor Body/AFL-CIO), 595 West Hartsdale Ave, White Plains

Today across the country, community, environment, faith, health and labor organizations are actively engaging to make positive change and resist policy that that adversely affects us all. One way to come together is to seek out issues that affect all of us and can bring us together. Runaway Inequality is one of those issues. Indivisible Westchester is part of the coalition sponsoring this important workshop on economic justice. RSVP: Joe Mayhew (jmayhewcwa1103@hotmail.com). - Environmental Advocates of NY, Letter to the Editor (LTE) campaign to Protect the Environmental Protection Agency from Budget Cuts

The administration's proposed budget would cut the EPA's budget to historic lows. The House proposed budget pushes back, but if the Senate is to follow and the House is to remain strong, concerned voices need to be represented in the media. Environmental Advocates of New York (eany.org/) is launching a Letter to the Editor (LTE) campaign. They have the drafts written and will walk volunteers through this easy process. Contact Xaver Kandler (xkandler@eany.org, 412-420-4823).

- Amazon Rainforest Fires

The Amazon is on fire and it is a global emergency. From protecting an acre (ran.org/issue/protect an acre) of rainforest via the Rainforest Action Network, to making a donation to the World Wildlife Fund (wwf.org.uk/where-we-work/places/amazon), here is a list of nine ways (fastcompany.com/90392750/9-ways-to-help-the-amazon-rainforest-right-now-as-fires-burn) you can help protect the rainforest.

- Sanctuary for Immigrants in Westchester Fundraising Campaign

In October 2018 South Presbyterian Church in Dobbs Ferry became the first sanctuary-church in Westchester County - where 61,000+ people are living under the threat of deportation. Every penny raised here will go directly towards building a permanent 1-bedroom apartment with private bathroom inside our church building. This renovation will allow immigrant families to seek refuge here and remain together while they fight their cases.
