1. SPECIAL AUTOGRAPHED CHILDREN'S BOOKS FROM TODAY SHOW ANCHOR HODA KOTB

This basket contains two books from NBC Today Show anchor Hoda Kotb, specially autographed just for CUUC! Hoda recently adopted a second daughter and just before going on maternity leave, she signed these books to support PrideWorks! "I've Loved You Since Forever" celebrates the joys of becoming a new mother. "You are my Happy" was inspired by her nighttime routine with first daughter, Haley Joy. Non-personalized books sell for almost $20 each, so this is a bargain!

Starting bid $50 - Increments of $10 for next bids

2. "O YES!" SCULPTURE FROM DINSA MEHTA

O YES! is a sculpture of celebration. It celebrates the power of YES. A work of Pop art, the piece is made from handmade steel letters, a forged Parisian ring, and Kokomo art glass on a base of brushed steel. The letters are finished in an anodized Illusion red that reflects a neon-like glow when light bounces off it and catches its highly polished base. The glass circles on the celebration ring evoke the exuberance of party balloons. This piece was specially made for us by our own Dinsa Mehta at Peppercorn Studio in April 2019.

Starting bid $100 - increments of $10 for next bids
