

Temple Israel of New Rochelle,
together with synagogues across the country,
invites you to

National Refugee Shabbat[★]

Friday, October 19, 2018

Services at 7:30pm

Rabbi Leora Kaye is the Director of Programming at the URJ where she is responsible for creative advancement of the core priorities of the Reform Movement: Tikkun Olam, Strengthening Congregations, Audacious Hospitality, and Youth. She worked as the rabbinic consultant for Shalom Sesame, has been an adviser on many other media projects, and wrote the study guides for the animated series Jewish Food For Thought. She formerly worked as Director of Community Engagement at Congregation Rodeph Sholom, and served as the Youth Director of Temple Israel in Boston and as Associate Director of Programming for Synagogue 2000.

Join us for a Shabbat dinner at 6:15pm
Space is limited.
RSVP to www.tinr.org/events

*National Refugee Shabbat is a moment for congregations, organizations, and individuals around the country to create a Shabbat experience dedicated to refugees. The parsha is Lech Lecha, which describes the beginning of the experience of wandering in search of freedom for the Jewish people. This makes it a particularly meaningful opportunity to deepen our understanding of today's global refugee crisis.

Temple Israel of New Rochelle | 1000 Pinebrook Boulevard, New Rochelle, NY 10804
(914) 235 - 18000 | www.tinr.org