

What the Constitution Means to Me

by Heidi Schreck, Directed by Oliver Butler

The Helen Hayes Theater, 44th Street between 7th & 8th Ave

WHAT THE CONSTITUTION MEANS TO ME breathes new life into our Constitution and imagines how it will shape the next generation of American women. Fifteen-year-old Heidi Schreck earned her college tuition by winning Constitutional debate competitions across the United States. Now she recalls her teenage self in order to trace the profound relationship between four generations of women in her own family and the founding document that dictated their rights and citizenship.

We are looking to put a CUUC group together to see this much talked about, limited engagement, one-woman play.
