

Margaret Borla, CPA

As a Manager at Porte Brown Accountant and Advisors, Margaret works with privately held companies whose revenue range from under $1 million to $50 million annually, across multiple industries. In addition, she prepares personal tax returns for individual clients. Margaret has been with Porte Brown for eight years but has over fifteen years of public accounting experience, as well as years of experience working for several private companies in various industries.

Margaret is a QuickBooks ProAdvisor, advanced certified in all versions of QuickBooks desktop and QuickBooks Online software, which are the most popular accounting platforms for small and medium size businesses.

Margaret also specializes in multi-state tax compliance and is a member of the Porte Brown foreign and international tax team. She manages, mentors and trains new staff at Porte Brown, as well as continues to stay current on new tax laws and tax planning opportunities for business and individual clients.

Margaret received her bachelor's degree in Professional Studies in 2008 and her master's in accounting in 2010.

When Margaret's not providing tax consulting and accounting services for individuals and businesses, she spends time with her family and friends. Margaret enjoys cooking, hiking, and watching movies. Margaret is an active board member of the Polish American Chamber of Commerce and speaks Polish. She loves to travel to new places. Her most memorable trip ever was a family trip to Yellowstone National Park.
