

Lisa Sromek

Senior Benefits Advisor

Chicago Regional Office

U.S. Department of Labor, EBSA

Lisa Sromek has been a part of the U.S. Department of Labor's Employee Benefits

Security Administration (EBSA) Chicago Regional Office since September 2004, helping the agency to achieve its mission of enforcement, education and outreach on laws which cover health, retirement, and other workplace-based benefits. She serves as a go-to person on her team for technical information related to health plans, and as EBSA Chicago's Liaison for several U.S. Congressional Offices in Illinois. Her accomplishments include assisting with the Polish-language translation of EBSA publications such as "Protecting Retirement and Healthcare Benefits After Job Loss."
