College student majoring in eCommerce/digital marketing who is looking for real-world work experience through an internship this spring/summer. Interns must be highly motivated and hard-working as they help build an online retail business for Italian women's fashion, gifts and houseware. Writing blogs, creating Facebook/google ads, social media advertising, search engine marketing are just a small list of things needed. We are looking for an entrepreneurial spirit and a self-starter, who is able to work both independently from home and in a team environment for meetings. While working, you'll benefit from a collaborative culture that is supportive and provides tons of hands-on learning experiences. You'll work side by side with senior team members. This is an incredible internship opportunity for the right motivated student.

Our company DOM ITP is a houseware & gift business & Italian fashion label Giuseppa Collection.

Intern will be working for both accounts www.domitp.com and www.giuseppacollection.com and will receive an incredibly wide range of real-world experience in eCommerce/digital marketing.

Interested candidates can email resume to info@domitp.com
