THE PASSING OF PREGNANCY AND PARENTING SUPPORT

Tallahassee, FL – Today, the Senate passed SB 300 – Pregnancy and Parenting Support by Senator Erin Grall (R- Glades, Highlands, Indian River, Okeechobee counties and part of St. Lucie County). Instead of supporting women and providing pregnancy care and support, this bill removes a woman's right to choose on a medical, mental, and spiritual level. Senator Rosalind Osgood (D-Broward County) released the following statement:

"I will not support a bill that attacks, at its core, women's rights in any way, shape, or form. Reducing the termination window to six weeks and requiring that a survivor of rape, incest or human trafficking have proper documentation, in what this bill deems a timely manner, is just as inhumane as it is inconsiderate. SB 300 fundamentally goes against my beliefs that a woman's right to choose should be between her, her doctor, and her God. SB 300 will inevitably do more harm than good which is why I, as not only a Senator, but as a woman could not vote in favor for it."
