

MICHIGAN CONFERENCE

Update from the President of Our Board of Directors

Rev. Liz Larrivee, M.B.A., M.Div.,
President Michigan Conference UCC Board Of Directors

The MI Conference UCC Board of Directors (Oversight) -- Staff (Management) Partnership has selected Rehmann to provide strategic and operational bookkeeping, payroll, accounting, finance, and investment support and advice. As a Certified Public Accountant-staffed finance and accounting solutions firm, Rehmann has extensive experience working with faith-based non-profits. With over 1,000 associates located in Michigan, Ohio and Florida, they are uniquely positioned to support the financial and accounting administrative needs of our Conference.

Rehmann's Mission Vision, Values, and Strategy include:

Our lead Michigan Conference Rehmann contacts are Rev. Shane Montoya, Treasurer Michigan Conference UCC Board Of Directors, and Lisa Soulliere, Conference Administrator and Registrar. At this point in the transition, Rehmann is reviewing our existing financial and accounting processes. They will be providing recommendations regarding good stewardship of Conference resources, long-term financial health, and financial review/audit preparation. Quickbooks Online accounting software and Gusto payroll system set up is nearing completion. Next steps include preparing a June Year to Date financial report and setting up a PO Box located in Grand Rapids to handle receipt capture and bill pay.

Look for more information about our partnership with Rehmann coming soon.
