The City of Orillia issued a call to artists in April 2019 for the design of the new waterfront banners. Kim, a Toronto-based Korean painter and muralist, was selected as the successful artist by a panel of jurors organized by the Orillia Public Art Committee. In 2018, Kim was the recipient of the Newcomer and Refugee Artist Mentorship grant from the Toronto Arts Council.

Five Orillia themes are being installed across 42 banners on street side light poles along Mississaga Street East and Centennial Drive.

Mayor Steve Clarke and Kim will be available for photos and interviews.

The City of Orillia is a city of 31,000 people in the heart of Ontario's Lake Country on the shores of Lake Couchiching and Lake Simcoe. Visit our website at orillia.ca.
