

Gina Cavallo Bio

Gina Cavallo is a leader in the anti-trafficking movement and the founder of We RISE USA. She is the Survivor Consultant and Board Vice-President for the NJ Coalition Against Human Trafficking, where she also coordinates its Survivor Leader Advisory Council. Gina was appointed to the NJ Commission on Human Trafficking in 2019. She is also the Co-Chair of the NJ Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics Anti-Trafficking Task Force and serves on the Survivor Leader Advisory Councils for PACT USA, Alliance to End Human Trafficking, and NJ CASA (Coaliton Against Sexual Assault). Gina has testified on critical policy issues in Washington, DC and Trenton, and was part of a televised address to a House Foreign Affairs Sub-Committee sharing her story. Gina received the National Liberators Award for Survivor Leader in 2020 along with many other awards and recognition. Her first book, A Survivor's Secrets was published in May 2024.