WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

MEDITATIVE THOUGHT: “Renewal is what happens when you realize that some of this stuff you’ve been carrying around doesn’t matter.” — Rob Bell

INTROIT

CALL TO WORSHIP (from the “I Have a Dream” speech by Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King)

One: And when we allow freedom to ring, when we let it ring from every village and hamlet, from every state and city, we will be able to speed up that day when all God's children

All: black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Catholics, and Protestants

One: will be able to join hands and to sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual

All: "Free at last, free at last; Thank God Almighty, we are free at last."

OPENING HYMN “I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say”

NCH #489

OPENING PRAYER (unison)

O God, all people are your Beloved, across races, nationalities, religions, sexual orientations and all the ways we are distinctive from one another. We are all manifestations of your image. You call us into your unending work of justice, peace and love. Let us know your presence among us now. Let us delight in our diversity that offers glimpses of the mosaic of your beauty. Strengthen us with your steadfast love. May we find rest and strength, renewal and hope. We ask this, inspired by the example of your disciple, Martin Luther King, Jr., and through Jesus Christ our Lord who taught us the pray, Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come; thy will be done – on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

SHARING OF JOYS & CONCERNS AND PASSING OF THE PEACE

RESPONSIVE READING based on Psalm 36:5-10

One: Your love, Lord, reaches to the heavens, your faithfulness to the skies.

All: Your righteousness is like the highest mountains, your justice like the great deep.

One: How priceless is your unfailing love, O God! People take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

All: They feast on the abundance of your house; you give them drink from your river of delights.

One: For with you is the fountain of life; in your light we see light.

All: Continue your love to those who know you, your righteousness to the upright in heart.
