Hi, I'm Alex Sarihan! I've been coaching tennis for the past nine years and have been teaching pickleball for the last three. I played collegiate tennis at both Wittenberg University and Thomas More University, where I developed a deep understanding of the game and a passion for helping others improve. Whether you're looking to refine your technique, develop a stronger strategy, or simply enjoy the game more, I'm here to help players of all levels reach their goals in both racquet sports.

Rates (Per Hour)

Private Lessons: $50 (1 or 2 participants)

Clinics/Group Lessons: $20 per player (3 or more participants)
