

LOPC MISSION MINISTRY

Serving Our Neighbors

Winter Nights has closed, but our commitment to caring for our neighbors continues. If you enjoyed preparing a meal, spending time with families or helping behind the scenes, there are other meaningful ways to serve through our local partners and friends.

FIND A WAY TO SERVE

Preparing and serving meals

Trinity Center: breakfast hosting and meal service.
Loaves and Fishes: food preparation and dining room service.
Hope Solutions: resident dinners or BBQs.
Habitat for Humanity: arrange lunch for build volunteers.

Tutoring and supporting children

Hope Solutions: help students with reading and math through after-school programs.
Monument Crisis Center: ask about the next youth tutoring or mentoring intake; current enrollment needs confirmation. Adult English tutoring is also listed.

Welcoming guests and sharing activities

Monument Crisis Center: Senior Moments hospitality, refreshments and bingo.
Trinity Center: reception, welcoming guests, and leading arts and crafts or life skills workshops.

Helping families settle in

Hope Solutions: help prepare a home for a new resident by collecting furnishings, delivering items and staging the space; assemble needed welcome baskets or move-in kits.

Unloading and practical help

Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano: warehouse and food distribution shifts.
Monument Crisis Center: sort, stock and distribute food.
Habitat Concord ReStore: handle donations and stock shelves.
Trinity Center: shower and laundry assistance.

Creating something together

Trinity Center: explore a group craft workshop.
Hope Solutions: assemble seasonal gifts or needed household supplies.
STAND!: collect requested items for families. Group projects are considered individually; new individual volunteers are not currently being recruited.

Working with a hands-on team

Habitat for Humanity East Bay Silicon Valley: help build homes, with tools and training provided. Construction volunteers must be at least 16.

Let us help you find your next opportunity

Contact Michelle Browning, Mission Manager, at michelle@lopc.org, and share what you enjoy doing, whether you want to serve on your own or with a group, and when you are available. We can help you explore a good fit.
