

Bio

Jeff Massotti, VP National Sales, TPO

Jeffrey Massotti serves as vice president of National Sales, TPO at Carrington Mortgage Services (CMS). His primary areas of responsibility include aligning the wholesale and correspondent sales organizations. Massotti's overall objectives include growing the company's non-QM business. After building a career in leadership positions outside the mortgage industry, Massotti moved through the ranks of Carrington quickly, rising from area sales manager to VP over the course of five years. Massotti received an MBA from Providence College and a Bachelor's degree from Stonehill College. He is a regular featured presenter on national webinars.