

AI Alper, Chief Executive Officer, Absolute Logic, Inc and CyberGuard360

AI Alper is a nationally recognized compliance expert, speaker and author on cyber security, secure technology and technology services for the financial, health care and legal communities. As CEO of Absolute Logic, Inc, a premier technology services company, and CyberGuard360, a cyber security and compliance company, AI is responsible for leading his teams as they secure, protect and support tens of thousands of assets worldwide. The tremendous success of CyberGuard360's NYS tremendous success of CyberGuard360's NYS DFS offering has led international firms to seek out AI and his team as they look to implement compliance solutions for the new GDPR regulation that goes into effect in late May 2018. AI advises US and international firms on cyber security and compliance, has authored 4 books on technology and cyber security, is regularly published in regional and nationally industry periodicals and was recently a keynote speaker at NASDAQ.