

Zenon Zorij Bio

With more than three and a half decades in the mortgage industry, Zenon is a cornerstone of the Third-Party Origination space. His diverse background—split between the front-end drive of Sales and the back-end precision of Operations—allows him to navigate the complexities of Wholesale and Correspondent lending with ease.

Zenon's reputation as a product expert is built on a deep fluency in non-agency lending, including a dedicated focus on Non-QM offerings since 2018. As a key player in the launch of Pennymac's Non-QM channel, Zenon is now focused on scaling the product's footprint across the Eastern Seaboard, helping partners unlock new opportunities in an evolving market.
