

Nick Castronova brings over two decades of experience in the mortgage industry, having started his career in Rochester, New York in 2005 and grown into a respected leader and entrepreneur. At Oxford Capital Mortgage, he has helped build a brokerage that prioritizes efficiency, transparency, and client success.

A proud NYAMB member since 2005 and Board Director since 2020, Nick now serves as President, working closely with mortgage professionals to expand education, strengthen partnerships, and support the continued growth of the broker community. He is also actively involved in organizations such as FAMP, AIME, and NPLA.

Nick is passionate about helping clients and fellow brokers succeed, and he remains focused on driving innovation and opportunity within the industry.