WHY BECOME A PATRON?

Our community's continued support helps GCM Student Media—our nationally recognized, award-winning scholastic journalism program—to grow as our students pursue the world of “new media” and explore opportunities to enhance their work, such as full-color printing, podcasts and video journalism.

GCM Student Media is the premier source of information about the world of Marshall. The Rank & File news magazine allows students to find their voice as they tell the stories of their peers, celebrate accomplishments, and explore the issues of their time. Meanwhile, the Columbian yearbook remains a rich and permanent source of memories as it preserves the school's historical record.

Patron donations are one-time contributions, and any amount is welcome. As a thank-you for their generosity, One Star Patrons and higher will receive a yearlong subscription to the news magazine and have their names published on the Patron pages of both publications. Five Star Patrons whose contributions are sent by December 1st will also receive a free yearbook!

We truly appreciate any contribution made to our program and look forward to enhancing our relationship with the GCM community.
