Universal Children's Day

November 20 is Universal Children's Day! It is a day that celebrates the unique potential of each and every child, and that reminds us all to continue to work for children's rights, as outlined in the UN Declaration on the Rights of the Child. The theme this year is: Children are taking over and turning the world blue – building a world "where every child is in school, safe from harm, and can fulfill their potential!" Make sure to wear blue in support on 11/20 and click here for other ways to participate! Click here for information about how the AMSSNDs are collaborating to increase educational opportunities for children in Haiti. For further reading, please read and share this resource on the cyclical relationship between child labor, lack of education, and poverty.