

Why you should come to hear Rick Recht at Temple Sinai?

Friday, December 7, 2018
6:00 pm Tot Shabbat and
Shabbat B'Yachad Communities
(0-8 years of age)

7:30 pm Chanukkah musical service featuring Rick Recht
With the participation of Grades 4-12
Open to the entire community

Rick Recht is one of the top touring musicians in Jewish music today. Rick has revolutionized and elevated the genre of Jewish rock music as a powerful and effective tool for developing Jewish pride and identity in youth and adults across the US. Rick is the national celebrity spokesman for the PJ Library and is the Executive Director of Songleader Boot Camp – a national songleader training immersion program held in various cities around the U.S. Rick is also the founder and Executive Director of Jewish Rock Radio, the very first high-caliber, 24/7 international Jewish rock online radio station

The stage is definitely my home,” says Recht. “The energy and voices of the audiences, whether they’re little kids, teens or adults, are indescribable. That’s the magic of Jewish music – the interaction, the singing, the dancing, and the powerful community connection. For me, it’s a dream come true to create and share in these powerful experiences.”

Rick visited Temple Sinai in 2012 and it was an unforgettable experience. His unique style is engaging and uplifting. Our students have been learning his songs from the beginning of the year in anticipation of Rick’s visit. On December 7th Rick will perform at two services: at the 6 pm service for ages 0-8 years and their families and then at 7:30 pm he will lead Friday Night Live service for the rest of the community with participation of the 4-12 grade students. To hear Rick live is a rare opportunity and I hope you don’t miss it.
