Immigration Resources

We understand that navigating immigration matters can be especially difficult for you and/or the families you work with. To help, we've compiled a list of essential resources to support you through this journey. Please share them with anyone who might need them. Many resources linked below are available in multiple languages.

General Resources: Legal Services, Helplines and more!

- We Are One / We Are One L.A. Unified: LAUSD is running an empowerment campaign to prepare for and safely defend our rights during encounters with Immigration & Customs Enforcement. Resources are available in English and Spanish and include a Family Preparedness Plan, Red Cards and more.
- List of Pro Bono Legal Service Providers: Pro Bono Legal Service Providers
- Immigration Hotlines. If you need immigration support in California, you can contact the following helplines and services:
  - Los Angeles County-Coalition for Humane Immigrant Rights: 888-624-4752 or info@chirla.org
  - Orange County-OC Rapid Response: 714-881-1558 or info@OCrapidresponse.org
  - Inland Empire-Inland Coalition for Immigrant Justice: 909-361-4588 or contact@ic4ij.org

Resource Guides for Non profits, and ECE's

- Public Counsel's "Know Your Rights! Interactions with Immigration Enforcement" webinar slides and webinar recording.
- Guide to Creating Safe Spaces for Early Learning Programs: This guide provides practitioners, advocates, and policymakers with information and resources to implement "safe space" policies that safeguard early childhood programs against immigration enforcement (CLASP)
- Know Your Rights: What To Do If ICE Comes To Your School (PDF): No matter your Immigration status, you have rights under the United States Constitution. Know what to do if an ICE officer comes to your school and be aware of what documents they should be presenting if they come. (Mobilization for Justice)
- LACOE's Immigrant Relations and Services: LACOE's Immigrant Relations program promotes compliance of policies that protect students and their families (AB 699, FERPA, AB 2121, and others) and can provide technical assistance to schools that need help in the implementation of those policies. This page has resources on community organization, family preparedness, know your rights and more.
