

NOTICE: CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE EMPLOYEE
42 U.S.C. § 195(c)e & MONTANA EXECUTIVE ORDER 2-2020 and 3-2020

27 March 2020

Federal and State orders have recognized working construction as critical or essential to the continued critical infrastructure viability, and therefore have exempt construction workers from the mobility and other restrictions designed to prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus. See United States Department of Homeland Security Critical Infrastructure Workforce Memorandum on Identification of Essential Critical Infrastructure Workers during COVID-19 Response dated 19 March 2020.

Specifically, Montana's "stay at home" order explicitly exempts construction work of all kinds as a critical work function - Executive Orders 2-2020 and 3-2020

8. Essential Infrastructure. For purposes of this Directive, individuals may leave their residence to provide any services or perform any work necessary to offer, provision, operate, maintain and repair Essential Infrastructure. Essential Infrastructure includes, but is not limited to: food production, distribution, storage, and sale; construction (including, but not limited to, construction required in response to this public health emergency, hospital construction, construction of long-term care facilities, public works construction, and housing construction); building management and maintenance; airport operations; aircraft fueling services; operation and maintenance of utilities, including water, sewer, and gas; electrical (including power generation, distribution, and production of raw materials); distribution centers; oil and biofuel refining; roads, highways, railroads, and public transportation; cybersecurity operations; flood control; operation of dams, locks, ditches, canals, diversions, and levies; solid waste and recycling collection and removal; and internet, video, and telecommunications systems (including the provision of essential global, national, and local infrastructure for computing services, business infrastructure, communications, and web-based services). Essential Infrastructure shall be construed broadly to avoid any impacts to essential infrastructure, broadly defined.
