MAKING A DIFFERENCE, ONE SCHOLARSHIP AT A TIME
Seeing firsthand the challenges faced by the life in the military and the sacrifices made by military spouses to take care of their families, U.S. Marine Corps veteran and founder of Think GREAT, Erik Therwanger, knew it was time to help these courageous patriots to get back on track with their education and career goals.

Our goal is to enrich and enhance the lives of military and veteran spouses by supporting the accomplishment of their educational and career goals. Now, you can match their unwavering spirit and commitment by helping us to provide scholarships to the military spouses who have sacrificed so much from their own personal lives.
