Bryan Campion Named Vice President of Finance

Think Bank is honored to announce the promotion of Bryan Campion to Vice President of Finance. Since joining the Think Bank team in 2010, Bryan has developed a wide range of skills and experience in the areas of consumer and business lending, fixed income investment analysis, asset liability management, and financial sustainability. His expertise and leadership are invaluable to the future success of the team.

“Regardless of my role, one thing remains constant – our genuine desire to do what’s best for our customers,” Bryan says. “As a part of the leadership team, I am committed to ensuring that Think Bank will remain a stable financial institution for future generations.”

A native of Rochester, Bryan graduated from Lourdes High School and went on to earn his bachelor’s degrees in English and Economics from the University of St. Thomas. He holds the designation of Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) and is active in local and national professional societies.

Nate Boyer, Chief Financial Officer says, “Bryan’s strong people leadership, collaboration, strategic mindset, and financial expertise will continue to serve the organization well in this new capacity. I am excited to see his continued impact on the finance area and the organization as he develops further in his leadership.”
