

This month we welcome Gabe Navarro to The Trusted Toolbox as part of our Remodeling Team.

Gabe is a native of Atlanta, attended Marist School and is an Auburn University alumni. He has dedicated over 25 years of his professional life to providing solutions to different industries and is driven to achieve customer delight in all his endeavors.

He is passionate about the remodeling industry and thrives on listening to the customer, offering sound advice, marshalling resources, providing timely communication and has a keen eye for detail.

Gabe and his wife, Angela, have two children and live in the Atlanta area. He holds himself and his team to the highest standards of excellence.

Welcome Gabe!