

President's message Continued:

Key Pillars of LWV's Good Governance Work:

- Protecting and Expanding Voting Rights: Advocating for policies that make it easier for all eligible citizens to vote and have their votes counted equally.
- Ensuring Fair Redistricting: Working to end partisan and racial gerrymandering by promoting independent redistricting commissions that are transparent and diverse.
- Reducing Money's Influence in Politics: Fighting for campaign finance laws that increase transparency and reduce the impact of dark money and wealthy donors in elections.
- Promoting Transparency and Accountability: Pushing for government processes that are open to public scrutiny and hold elected officials accountable.
- Advocating for Responsible Governance: Supporting policies for a fair tax system, conservation of natural resources, and effective solutions to economic and social problems.

How LWV Works to Achieve This:

- Education and Advocacy: Informing voters and citizens about issues, policy proposals, and opportunities for civic engagement.
- Grassroots Organizing: Mobilizing members and allies at local, state, and national levels to advocate for change.
- Nonpartisan Approach: Building bridges and being a trusted voice by working across political divides to fight for universal democratic
