

BGANZ VIC Network Meeting: Climate, Conservation, Collections and Community

Wednesday 28th August 2019

9.00 – 3.30pm

Royal Botanic Gardens Victoria
Domain House

	Session One: Keynote	Speaker/s
9.00 – 9.25	Registrations open
9.25 – 9.30	Welcome:	Chris Russell – Convenor BGANZ Victoria
9:30 – 10:30	Climate, Conservation, Collections and Community	Dr. Dave Kendal Senior Lecturer Environmental Management University of Tasmania
10:30 – 11.00	Morning Tea
	Session Two: Climate and Collections
11.00 – 11.30	Landscape Succession Strategy – a prelude to the international Climate Change Alliance of botanic gardens	Clare Hart Manager Horticulture Royal Botanic Gardens Victoria Melbourne Gardens and Peter Symes Curator Horticulture Royal Botanic Gardens Victoria Melbourne Gardens
11:30 – 12:00	What collection? Application and evaluation of climate risk ratings for collections development	Jo Brennan and Terry Smyth Horticulturists Royal Botanic Gardens Victoria Melbourne Gardens
12:00 – 12:10	Case Study One: Melton Botanic Gardens Eucalypt Arboretum	Barbara Pye Chair Melton Botanic Gardens Working Party Eucalyptus Arboretum Project Manager
12:10 – 12:20	Case Study Two: Summer Walk Sale Botanic Gardens	Tim Rowe Manager of Natural Environment and Parks Shire of Wellington
12:20: 13.15	Lunch
	Session Three: Conservation and Community
13:15 – 14:00	Care for the Rare – A conservation collections capacity building project	John Arnott Manager Horticulture Royal Botanic Gardens Victoria Cranbourne Gardens
14:00 – 14:30	Other recent conservation initiatives - Far North Queensland ex situ conservation project and Myrtle Rust S.O.S. species actions	Lydia Guja Seed Conservation Biologist Australian National Botanic Gardens ACT
14:30 – 15:00	Assisted Migration – Collaborating for Collections	Greg Bourke – Curator Manager Blue Mountains Botanic Gardens
15:00 – 15:30	Panel Discussion and Q&A	Facilitated by John Arnott & Clare Hart

BGANZ Vic Network Meeting Partners

Helen Macpherson Smith Trust