This interactive workshop will explore how to identify funders and prepare a successful grant application. Topics to be addressed include:

- Understanding the diversity of funding opportunities;
- Researching and identifying potential funders;
- Developing relationships with potential funders;
- Writing the key elements of a grant proposal; and,
- Packaging a professional grant submission.

The day-and-a-half-long course is designed for:

- Organizations and individuals who wish to address rural health issues in their community (rural health providers, clinic and hospital staff, public health professionals, community coalition leaders or others); and,
- Beginning grant writers seeking to understand the skills needed to research and draft winning grant proposals.
