LIVING ON CAMPUS

FRIENDS!

There are lots of great reasons to live on campus but meeting friends is #1.

Outside the classroom, there are so many opportunities to develop friendships that will last a lifetime. From your first roommate to all the people in your dorm, to classmates, to coworkers at your campus job, living on campus offers a great way to meet people.

Campus life provides you with the perfect opportunities to fill your calendar with fun after hours activities, study groups, and just plain old hangin' around. Caldwell's campus offers many spaces to gather: The Cougar Den, the newly renovated Mother Joseph Lounge, and Dominican Hall Lounge offer multi-use spaces for karaoke, to game night, to just chatting with friends. State-of-the-art, group collaboration spaces located throughout campus enhance academic projects as well. Our beautiful campus also offers endless outdoor places to grab lunch with friends or simply enjoy the day.

LIVING ON CAMPUS

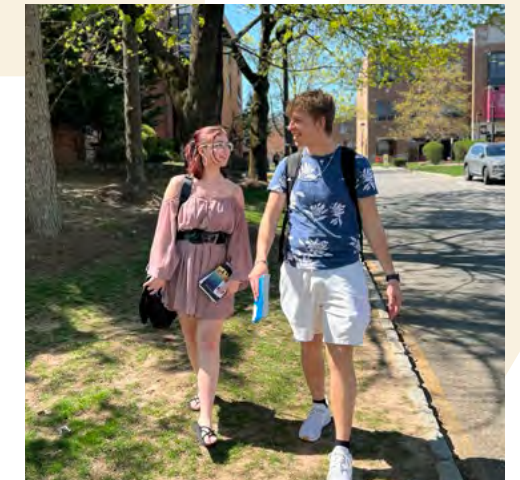

SECURITY

Campus provides a sense of safety and security hard to find elsewhere.

Statistics confirm students feel safer living on campus compared to students who live off-campus — an important factor parents and students consider when making their housing decision.

Caldwell University understands the importance of a safe and secure campus environment and strives to maintain a security system that provides protection for students. Our small campus features well-lit walking paths, convenient parking and a 24/7 security team in place. The Campus Escort program and emergency phones located throughout campus offer students added comfort to know that Campus Security is always there for them.

Caldwell University provides regular safety training and educational programs to promote awareness, and empower students and staff with the knowledge on how to stay safe on campus.

75% of students living on campus have a higher chance of participating in campus activities.

LIVING ON CAMPUS

EAT, EXERCISE AND ENJOY

Campus life makes college complete.

College dorms often serve as the backdrop for pizza and movie nights, study marathons and budding friendships — making them great places to meet new people.

Knowing you have great spots to meet friends and enjoy a meal at the Dining Hall is such an advantage to living on campus. Grab a Starbucks at Café 39 on the way to class or hangout at the Cougar Den to recharge, or join a study group. The Gourmet Market Place offers quick pick-up food and amazing pizza! A registered dietitian is available to consult with students about dietary restrictions if needed.

The recently renovated campus fitness center and various exercise classes allow you to create your own fitness schedule.

Parties on the Plaza are a Caldwell tradition! Enjoy music, BBQ, and fun activities during the school year.

LIVING ON CAMPUS

YOUR DORM IS YOUR HOME

Make it your own.

Living in one of our three residence halls (Mother Joseph Residence Hall, Dominican Hall, and Rosary Hall) offers students convenience, security, and independence. Each of the residence halls have ID card swipe access and are staffed with 24/7 security personal to ensure safety.

Dorm living allows you to choose how to spend your free time, schedule support services, attend study groups, and chill with friends. All the dorms are a short walk to classes, the Dining Hall and campus activities.

Student lounges are new and improved. The recently renovated Mother Joseph Hall offers a state-of-the-art and ADA compliant common area, a study area with monitors and integrated modular stations for multiple events. Dominican Hall lounge provides students an open space used for various events, gaming and just having fun!

All students living on campus have access to a free laundry facility. This secure space is within the dorm, so students do not need to leave the building to do their laundry.

College students living on campus have a 7% higher four-year graduation rate than those living off campus.

The average satisfaction rate at institutions that require on-campus living is 81%.
