

2021 Sponsorship Opportunities

We are shaking things up this year.

With life likely not returning to "normal" until the second half of 2021, this year's sponsorships reflect our multi-media reality for much of next year.

We have learned that virtual events provide sponsors with a broader and larger audience as our events are not limited by cost and space considerations. For example, our 2020 annual meeting attendance was almost twice the usual turnout and continues to get new impressions online.
