

Announcing our 2021 NMEA
Performance Readiness Virtual Workshops!!!
NMEA is proud to provide the opportunity to work with WORLD
CLASS MUSICIANS including:

Imani Winds

Rebecca Young, Associate
Principal Viola of the NY
Philharmonic

Kelley Nassief,
Soprano

NMEA is pleased to present an opportunity for your students to perform with WORLD CLASS MUSICIANS! Clinicians for grades 10-12 are professional musicians including members of professional orchestras and college professors from around the country!

Clinicians for grades 5 - 9 are some of our finest NYSSMA certified adjudicators.

Who: All Band, Chorus and Orchestra students in grades 5-12. Students are encouraged to perform during these workshops, but they may also audit.

What: Interactive personalized workshops tailored to ability level of students. Workshops will take place via Zoom. Topics to be covered include:

- Brief performance by Clinician
- Effective Practice Strategies
- Sight Reading/Singing
- Repertoire preparation: NYSSMA solos, school ensemble literature, and more!

When: Weekend of February 5th – 7th

- Students will be assigned a specific time slot approximately two weeks before the event.
- Sessions will run approximately 60-90 minutes.

How: Fill out a commitment form provided to you by your teacher!