

Looking for something fun to do between Passover and Jazz Fest?

Come to Shir Chadash's Art/Sports and Movie Memorabilia Auction
Saturday, April 21, 2018!

An ARTrageous Evening: Bids, Bites, and Bordeaux! will honor our own talented and beloved art community, and we invite our artists to participate by donating art, including pottery, jewelry, wearable art, and other artistic expressions. Email the office (shirchadash@shirchadash.org) if you would like to be included.

Your donation may be included in our silent auction or in the live auction, being conducted by Azalea Auctions. Art works that Azalea will bring include oils, watercolors, lithographs by Agam, Chagall, Picasso, Dali, Renoir, Boulanger, Neiman, Rockwell, Disney, and many others. The work includes also sculpture and memorabilia. Investment works will be available for the serious collector.

 Help choose the art! Azalea has offered to try and represent works as close to your requests as possible. Please email the office with the subject line "Auction Choices," to tell us what style you'd like (e.g., abstract, portraits, oriental, primitive/naïve, Jewish, impressionism, Southwestern, street scenes, landscapes, seascapes, sports, modern, wildlife) and the price range (under $100, under $300, under $500, under $1000, under $1500).

This fun-filled evening begins at 7:45 with havdalah. The preview party featuring wine and hors d'oeuvres and guest musicians from Israel will start at 8:15 pm, and the auction will start promptly at 9:00 pm.

All art is guaranteed to be priced below retail prices.

Save the Date: April 21!

Invitation to Follow