LEADING TEXAS INTO THE FUTURE OF AI GOVERNANCE

Join us for an inspiring evening with Senator Tan Parker, a visionary leader shaping the future of artificial intelligence in Texas state governance.

Introducing Senator Tan Parker

Senator Tan Parker, a proud graduate of Nolan Catholic High School and the University of Dallas, is not only a distinguished businessman but also a devoted public servant. With a master's degree from the London School of Economics, Tan's career has spanned technology, private equity, and an enduring commitment to the betterment of Texas.

Tan's extensive legislative experience includes serving in the Texas House, where he played a pivotal role as Chair of the House Republican Caucus. His leadership continues today as a member of the Texas Senate, focusing on issues that foster Texas' economic vitality and protect its most vulnerable citizens.

As co-chair of the Texas Artificial Intelligence Advisory Council, Senator Parker is at the forefront of crafting ethical AI governance, ensuring responsible innovation across state agencies. His passion for balancing technological advancement with accountability has positioned Texas as a leader in AI governance, guiding policies that will impact future generations.
