San Francisco Fire Department Meritorious Awards Ceremony

San Francisco, CA – The San Francisco Fire Department will host an awards ceremony recognizing its members for Meritorious Conduct and Actions during the course of their work.

On Thursday, October 20, 2022, the San Francisco Fire Department will host an awards ceremony recognizing its members for Meritorious Conduct and Actions.

"Our members consider everything they do as simply their jobs, but it's important for them to know that their actions don't go unnoticed," said Fire Chief Jeanine Nicholson. "Day in and day out, our members do great things. This is a time that we set aside to acknowledge them and thank them for upholding the finest traditions of the San Francisco Fire Department...saving lives and property. This is also an opportunity for their families to celebrate with them."

Awards will be presented for meritorious conduct, on and off duty. Multiple Unit Citations, Certificates of Commendation, Letters of Recognition, and Class A, Class B, and Class C Medals will be issued.

WHO: Chief Jeanine R. Nicholson; San Francisco Fire Department Command Staff; Honored guests and dignitaries.
