

MEET THE INTERNS!

ERIN REMINGTON

MARKETING, DESIGN, LEAD GENERATION INTERN

Erin Remington hails from Cumming, GA. She is a rising senior at the University of Georgia and is currently studying advertising with a minor in communication studies. With a background in marketing strategy development for non-profit organizations, Erin has a passion for meaningful work. She is excited to join the team at Turknett Leadership Group and help to create an impact on businesses and individual leaders. In light of current events, she also hopes to gain experience and insight into digital communication across various industries.

SAEED PHILLIPS

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT INTERN

Saeed Phillips comes from Stone Mountain, Georgia. He attends the University of Georgia (Go Dawgs!) and is a rising junior studying Management Information Systems. He chose to intern at Turknett because he knows it will be a good opportunity to apply and build on marketing and leadership skills in addition to introducing him to the world of management consultation.

EVE BARRETT

SENIOR MARKETING & DESIGN INTERN

Eve Barrett is interning remotely from her small town Thompsons Station, TN. She is a rising senior at Agnes Scott College and is studying English-Creative Writing with an intended minor in Psychology. She is thrilled to be celebrating her one year anniversary at TLC and to be returning as a summer intern. She is excited to help in a digital capacity to continue TLC's meaningful work and impact.

