The Padlet responses have been so amazing...quotes, pictures, memes – so much creativity! This week Ms. Michelle and Dr. K will start meeting with grade levels to talk about Core Values, in particular, Responsibility/Responsibilidad. Please respond on the Padlet if you have not: WOW Padlet

Character Development Program

Character Strong PurposeFull People our new character development program at CNG. PurposeFull People will help us to weave social-emotional learning and character education into our teaching and learning program. We will have a focus on five traits this school year that connect with our CNG Core Values. The materials provided through PurposeFull People provide lessons for explicit teaching of these five traits led by our English and Spanish teachers. There are home and staff challenges to be able to include the entire CNG community. We hope you will join us in September/October to encourage Responsibility by joining in the home activities found here in the Parent Letter. We are thrilled to take this journey together!
