We realize that coming back on campus is like the 1st day of school. On April 9th during our class meetings, the Middle School Office in partnership with the Student Council will present a Code of Honor Review for all students. This would be a great time to speak with your students about the importance of the CNG Honor Code. NJHS - Selection April 9th As a reminder of the communication sent two weeks ago, we want to inform you that given the hybrid schedule and pilot, the NJHS selection committee members will be meeting the week after Easter Break, having an answer for all applicants on April 9th. We are eager to know who will be joining us in this fantastic group and working together for the rest of this school year and beyond.

Athletics

Condor Activities and the Athletic Department hope you enjoyed a much needed Semana Santa. We are looking forward to finishing the last quarter of the school year strong. As mentioned in our previous communication, Condor Activities will remain virtual for consistent and robust program delivery. The Athletics department will return to virtual athletic practice on April 5, and on-campus practice April 17. A reminder that athletic practice will not be taking place during MS/HS 3-way conferences (HS April 7, and MS April 8).
