Distance Learning Organizational Tips

There were multiple requests for organizational tips during DL during a recent Coffee Chat. As always our counselors, Ms. Moni and Ms Adri heard you and have responded with the following article. If you are feeling frustrated with your child's DL (dis)organization (or your own!), please read through the article. Very useful tips!

Coffee Chat

This week's Coffee Chat was focused on some main points of concern that parents brought to the table.. These are outlined and addressed below. The bullet points are the conversations/questions and the arrows → are the responses or follow-up!

- Over all great support and enthusiasm for the professionalism and work being done in ES DL. Kids love seeing their teachers and each other. Staying connected is so important!
→ THANK YOU!
- How will students be placed next year? Will they move up with their current class?
- → Please look for Skyward correspondence sent to all families last Thursday (5th grade included as an FYI) outlining the placement process for 2020-2021.. If families have question they should be sent to Fanny and/or Maria Paula in the office. Please do not contact this year's teacher regarding placement.
- There were multiple questions about adding synchronous instructional time and providing time for authentic feedback to students.

→ Ms. Michelle and Ms. Tanya met with the ES Team Leaders on Thursday to discuss and begin to plan what additional synchronous time can look like. We will meet again next week to plan a 'pilot' implementation. More to come!

- Wondering about differentiation for athletics – not everyone has the same space or access to equipment.
→ Ms. Michelle will pass concerns on to Andres Silva.
- Questions about Spanish classes, organization and use of time. Needs to be tightened up. Also wondering about Book Clubs/Partner reads of Spanish literature.
→ Ms. Michelle has met with Spanish Coach, Ms MariPat, and passed on the concerns with Spanish. They will be addressed in the meeting next week.

Please Join Us - Coffee Chat: Every Thursday at 8:00am.
