The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

The people are seated for the readings of the day.

The First Reading: Isaiah 58:1-9a

God said this to Isaiah: Don't be shy – speak up! In fact, pretend you're a trumpet and blast this out: Tell people what they need to hear. They say they want to be close to me, yet they turn the other way when they see me coming. Then I hear them complaining, “So, why are we doing all this to get your attention, God—we fast (don't eat), and humble ourselves, but you don't see us and you don't even care.”

And here's what I say to that: You are fasting (not eating) for yourselves, not for me. You don't treat your workers like they are real people. Fasting doesn't make you holier; it just makes you hungry and angry and ready to fight. That kind of behavior is NOT going to get my attention. When you act like that, I won't even listen to you. Instead of fasting, why don't you NOT do something instead? Why don't you NOT let people remain in awful working situations? Why don't you NOT turn away from people who are hurting? Why don't you NOT pretend there aren't people who are hungry? Why don't you NOT walk right past homeless people and instead bring them into your house?

Instead of fasting, if you do these things, you will be like a really bright light, like the sun coming over the mountains, and your life will get so much better. And my glory will follow you all day long and keep you safe. Instead of fasting, if you do these things, when you call out for me, I will be right there to listen to you and answer you.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 112:1-9

Please read responsively. The congregation will read verses in bold.

Hallelujah. Those who give to the poor are happy. Those who are in awe of God and love to listen to God, are happy too. Not only will they be happy, their children will be good, strong, happy people, too. They will have everything they need and their love of God will go on forever.

Know your heart is right and you are right with God.

If you love God, it's like having a light in a dark tunnel. Being kind when you have no reason to be, and to be gentle with those who are hurting; that's the kind of light God wants in the world.

It's good to be generous with all you have, and to treat everyone equally. You'll have a good foundation if you do those things; people will remember that you were good to them.

Know your heart is right and you are right with God.

You won't need to worry about people talking trash about you, when you know your heart is right and you are right with God. You can stand strong and watch people who make fun of you become weaker and weaker. You can hold your head high when you are able to share what you have with poor people.

Know your heart is right and you are right with God.

The Gospel: Matthew 5:13-20

All standing, the Priest or Deacon reads the Gospel

Deacon or Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said these things:

You are like salt, which is good when it's salty. You, like salt, can make a big difference.

You are like light that everyone in the world can see.

You are like a city on top of the world that no one can hide.

You don't light a lamp and then put a bucket over it. You put it on a table in the middle of the house and then it can light up the whole house.

You should let people see your light because when they see the good you do in God's name, they will turn to God and thank him.

My job isn't to wipe out everything everyone before me has said or done. In fact, my job is to do the right things according to the law. The point of the law is to have it followed. So don't tell people to break the law or the commandments; that certainly won't make you right with God. But know what the law and the commandments really mean for the people, and teach them that.

You've got to be better than just following the law, thinking that will get you right with God.

After the Gospel, the Reader says The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Silence may be kept.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.
