

Round House Theatre

is in search of several actor/musicians

for their production of
I'LL GET YOU BACK AGAIN

By Sarah Gancher

Directed by Rachel Chavkin

Rehearsals begin August 28, 2017

Performances run Tuesdays-Sundays, October 4-29, 2017

About Round House Theatre:

Round House Theatre is one of the leading professional theatres in the metropolitan DC area, with a 400 seat theatre in downtown Bethesda and an extensive education program.

About the Show:

Chloe was a struggling stand-up comedian - until she decided to sit in for her dead father as the bassist for his seminal psychedelic rock band, The Pisces. While rehearsals progress, Chloe finds herself navigating increasingly delicate emotional terrain as old conflicts flare up and old flirtations reignite. The Pisces perform in flashbacks (using the roles below), as well as in the present.

About the roles:

These roles are primarily musicians who appear in flashback as the rock band The Pisces. All roles are paid, and are open to Equity or non-Equity performers.

Young Coyote Dan: male, early 20s, lead singer for The Pisces. Proficient rock/blues singer with a high rock and roll wail, and a small speaking part.

Young Melvin: male, early 20s, African-American, drummer for The Pisces. High skilled rock drummer, but also a small speaking part.

Jimmy: male, early 20s. The Pisces' bassist. Magnetic and energized, constantly bursting with ideas. Proficient in rock bass guitar and a significant speaking role.

For More Information, or to Submit for an Audition:

Email artistic@roundhousetheatre.org or ghoyt@roundhousetheatre.org. Please include a picture and resume or brief synopsis of your experience. Auditions will be held in early March and are by appointment only.

Round House Theatre
4545 East-West Highway Bethesda, MD 20814

Round House Theatre Administrative Office
Silver Spring Civic Building
One Veteran's Place Silver Spring, MD 20910