

TDPS NEW PLAY WORKSHOP PANEL

How do you collaborate on a new play?

Sunday, February 19th, 3-5pm
CAFritz FOUNDATION THEATRE, THE CLARICE

This kickoff event is a panel discussion for anyone who has interest in working on a new play--now or in the future, in any capacity.

Top DMV-area theatre professionals-- including director JoJo Gruenhut, dramaturg Otis Ramsey-Zoe, actor Thembi Duncan, and playwright Gwydion Suleibahn-- will join us for a rich conversation about how a playwright, director, dramaturg, and actors can most fruitfully collaborate on the development of a new play.

A staged reading of the new plays developed throughout the weeklong TDPS New Play Workshop will take place on Sunday, February 26th.

Moderated by TDPS Professor Jennifer Barclay.
Supported in part by the Dramatists Guild of America.
