

The Triumph of Horus

Based on the translation by H. W. Fairman

Adapted and Directed by Allison Hedges

Part of the TDPS 2019-2020 Second Season, The Triumph of Horus is a rarely performed ancient Egyptian drama that follows the falcon god Horus, son of Isis and Osiris, as he goes forth to battle his uncle Seth, god of chaos, for the Egyptian throne that is rightfully his. Looking for a cast of 6-8 actors who are comfortable with movement, music, poetry, improvisation, and experimenting with new ways of conveying ancient text and context. Roles include Horus, Isis the Goddess-Queen, Thoth the God of Wisdom, Lector Priest (the narrator), Demon Bull (an agent of Seth), and an ancient Egyptian chorus.

Auditions

Thursday, August 29, 4:00–6:00 PM in the Cafritz Theatre
Please prepare a 2-minute dramatic monologue or spoken word piece.

Callbacks

Wednesday, September 4, 5:00–7:00 PM in the Cafritz

First Rehearsal

Monday, September 9 at 6:00 PM

Performance Dates

Friday, December 6 – Saturday, December 7, 2019

SCHOOL OF
THEATRE, DANCE, &
PERFORMANCE STUDIES