

ACTnow

ARTS CITIZENSHIP TALKS

Race and Culture Through the Lens of Euripides

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THEATRE ALLIANCE, UMD DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS, OFFICE OF DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

GUEST SPEAKERS:

Anne Bogart, SITI Company
Raymond Caldwell, Theater Alliance

Join SITI Company's Anne Bogart for a conversation with DC's Theater Alliance artistic director Raymond Caldwell as we explore The Bacchae and issues surrounding the two sides that lie dormant within all of us. One side is the power of the wilder, untamed forces – the goat rending, beer-binging passions – and the dangers of letting these proclivities see the light of day. The other side is our appetite for control, for certainty, dogmatism and rigidity that has the potential to take over our lives. SITI Company's production embodies these issues in a way that simultaneously questions current assumptions about gender, race and culture.

MON, OCT 28 • 6:30PM

FREE, REGISTRATION REQUIRED • RECEPTION TO FOLLOW

CAFritz FOUNDATION THEATRE, THE CLARICE

GO.UMD.EDU/ACTNOWSITI

Arts Citizenship Talks (ACTnow) are opportunities for audiences to hear from The Clarice's Visiting Artists on activism around the issues reflected in their work. They are an invitation to act now!

EXPERIENCE SITI COMPANY LIVE: WED, OCT 30 • 8PM AT THE CLARICE

THECLARICE.UMD.EDU OR 301.405.ARTS

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

THE CLARICE