Begin your actor training now.

Studio Theatre Acting Conservatory provides rigorous, individualized training in an intimate, supportive setting. Principles of Realism and Actor's Process are two classes perfect for the individual ready to begin their acting journey. The fall semester begins September 5, 2017 and goes through January 26, 2018 with classes meeting once per week. Tuition for classes begins at $200.

ACTOR'S PROCESS

Register for Actor's Process and join us to learn the beginning fundamentals of acting. Develop and sharpen self-awareness, observation, creative imagination, improvisational skills, and the articulate use of the body and voice.

PRINCIPLES OF REALISM

Strengthen your skills and broaden your toolbox with familiar concepts such as objectives, concentration, and subtext. The Principles of Realism class features individual exercises and partnered scene work to push you to your best performance.
