

Light board and Sound Operators needed for 2017 Fringe Show—Paid Positions

March 27, 2017

“It’s What We Do” –which received the 2015 Best of Fringe Audience Award for Best Drama—is coming back to the 2017 Capital Fringe Festival. Sound and light board operators are needed for the show, as well as for a videotaping of the play the week of August 7-14. The commitment includes the tech and 5 performances between July 5-23, 2017, as well as possible additional shows during Extension Week, July 26-31. The stipend is $250.

An additional stipend will be paid for the videotaping of 3-4 days. Information about the play can be found on its website at iwwdplay.org

Interested people should send an email to director Pamela Nice at <mailto:pmnice@gmail.com>, with an attached resume of tech experience. The positions will be filled as soon as possible.
