

Why Public Education?

Hear Julie Mead's answer:

Public Schools the Cornerstone of Democracy

Dr. Julie Mead

Professor, Dept of Educational
Leadership & Policy Analysis
School of Education
University of Wisconsin-Madison

Monday, March 2
Neenah Public Library

Shattuck Community Room
240 E Wisconsin Ave, Neenah WI

- 6:30 – 7 pm: Social with cookies and soft drinks
- 7 – 8 pm: Presentation: Public Schools: the Cornerstone of Democracy
- 8 – 8:30 pm: Questions and Answers

Learn about the values and principles that make public schools essential to democracy. Recognize the emerging threats to those principles. Discover ways in which you can articulate and promote values that ensure that your schools and community remain strong and serve as the cornerstone of democracy.

This event is free and open to the public. Dr. Mead's talk is intended for students, parents, educators, school administrators, and community members.