Judge Lisa Neubauer:

Understands the rights of working people.

Supports public schools and public school educators.

Recognizes public school educators deserve a voice.

Possesses the experience and integrity needed to serve.

LISA NEUBAUER

Chief Judge Lisa Neubauer has the qualifications, experience and character needed for a Supreme Court Justice. With over 30 years' experience, she has a strong record of ensuring that courts are fair, impartial, and independent. She brings a deep understanding of the law and constitution, and a proven record of accomplishment, leadership and fair and impartial decision-making. In addition to Wisconsin Public School educators and many unions, she has earned statewide support from more than 300 judges.
