

The 10-Minute Meeting

All too often we hear, "there's no reason to hold a meeting if there's nothing to report/decide/vote on." Or, we hear, "I'm not sure we have a union because there are never any meetings." But mostly, we hear, "I don't have TIME to go to ANOTHER meeting."

You have an opportunity to keep members in the loop AND respect their time by holding 10-minute meetings! It's also a great time to get feedback from people in the building.

If you feel like you're in a rut, why not try the 10-minute meeting?

10-minute meetings can and should be used for LOCAL issues as well! Is there a controversy about how policy is being implemented differently in one building over another? Does the meet-and-confer team need feedback from members on issues being discussed with the District? Do you need to take the temperature of the members over recent curriculum changes? Use the 10-minute meeting!
